

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, January 19. 1723.

London, January 19.

Yesterday arrived two Mails from France.

Lisbon December 17.

PRINCE Don Francisco, the King's Brother, is returned hither from Zamora, where he had been Hunting. On the 9th Instant M. de Mendonça, Secretary of State, had a long Conference with the Spanish Ambassador touching some Naval Affairs. Several Persons, accused of Judaism, have lately been apprehended here, and committed to the Inquisition. The Corsairs of Saleé and other Ports of Barbary, are returned to their own Ports, none having been despoiled off the Coasts of this Kingdom a long time past. The Royal Academy of History which the King erected in this City, excites the Emulation of all polite Persons, and begets a great Taste of Learning. The Academicians assembled on the 9th Instant to chuse Directors for the ensuing Year, and such Persons who executed the Function of President last Year are continued, but according to different Turns settled by Lot. Don Ferdinand de Northona, Count of Montefanto and Member of the Royal Academy of History, died on the 13th Instant universally regretted: His Marriage was just concluded with Dona Maria de Gama, his Niece, Daughter of the Marquess de Niza.

Milan, Dec. 23. Several new Imperial Regiments are expected here, but 'tis not known where to quarter them, by reason of the Poverty of the Inhabitants. It is more and more apprehended, that the Turks design to attack Dalmatia and the Island of Corfu; and 'tis reported, that an Alliance is concluded between the Emperour and the King of Sardinia, who continues fortifying his Frontier Towns towards France, and has sent thither all sorts of Provisions.

Geneva, Jan. 2. The Quarantain for Merchandise manufactured and dyed at Lyons, is regulated to 30 Days in our Lazaretto, and none is yet received from Places that have been infected, or any sort of white Goods. The Magistrates of this City answered some Days ago the Letter which the Cardinal du Bois sent them on the Part of his most Christian Majesty, to notify the Death of the Dutcheß Dowager of Orleans.

Paris, Jan. 16. The King is expected hither the 15th of next Month, to hold the Bed of Justice in the Palace Royal, and 'tis said his Majesty will be declared there at the same Time, and that his Majesty will go to the Parliament on the 16th, where he is to be conducted, and received with extraordinary Splendour and Magnificence; meanwhile the Number of Workmen employed in beautifying the great Hall is augmented one half, that every thing may be finished against that Time. His Majesty has given the Superintendancy of the Bridges and Canals of the Isle of France, to the Marquess de Pezé; a Post that has been executed by the Marquess de Beringuen, and reckoned worth 30000 Livres a Year. M. Berté, a famous Painter, has drawn the King's Picture; and succeeded very well in it, as 'tis said, and 'tis reported he will be employed in drawing the Design of the fine Set of Hangings which are proposed to be wrought, representing the King's Coronation. Some Days ago the Court went out of deep Mourning for the Death of the Dutchess Dowager of Orleans, but the half Mourning upon that Occasion is yet continued, and 'tis said the Court will afterwards wear Black for the Death of the Princess des Ursins.

Paris, Jan. 20. The Report still continues of the King's going to the Parliament about the Middle of next Month, to cause the Declaration of his Majority to be registred; 'tis said that Declaration is to be made the Day before by the Superior Courts, and that his Majesty is likewise to be complimented there by all the Princes, Ministers, inferior Courts, and principal Nobility; after which it is believed he will return to Versailles. The Creation of the Knights of the Holy Ghost is yet uncertain; some think there will be no Promotion of that Kind at the King's Majority; others say, that out of 67 vacant Places belonging to that Order, the King will fill up not above 37, reserving the other 30 to another Season. The Bishop of Clermont is expected hither from his Diocese, to speak the Funeral Oration at the solemn Service which is to be performed at the Beginning of next Month in the Abbey of St. Denis, on the Death of the late Dutchess of Orleans. On the 8th Instant, the Cardinal du Bois was elected Honorary Academician of the Royal Academy of Inscriptions and Polite Literature. M. de la Motte presented a Complimentary Poem to the King, in which he exhorts his Majesty to merit the Name of Louis the Perfect. Letters from Colentin say, that on the 31st past there happened a terrible Storm of Thunder and Lightning, which fell upon the Seat called d'Herondeville, belonging to M. de Gramont, beat down Part of the House, kill'd the Gardiner, and mortally wounded another of the Servants; it fell afterwards upon the Church of Coffeville, and also upon a Farm, and burnt the same to the Ground; these three Places are situated within a Quarter of a League of each other, and the Damage was done by three Claps of Thunder, attended by Lightning, all happening in less than a Quarter of an Hour. On the 12th Instant, the Duke of Orleans and Duke of Bourbon sat three Hours about Business with the Cardinal du Bois, in his Apartment, by Reason of his Indisposition.

Paris, Jan. 23. On the 19th Instant, one of the Religious Houses of Jesuits in this City performed a solemn Service in their Church for the Repose of the Soul of the late Dutchess of Orleans. --- The same Day a Courier was sent to Lyons, with a Licence to the Marechal de Villeroy to return to Court, and 'tis believed he will go to his Estate at Villeroy, and abide there till the King's Majesty. --- The Marquess de Canillac having likewise obtained Leave to return from Exile, is already at Beaurepaire. --- The Dutchess of Orleans is going to take Possession of the Apartments which which belonged to the late Dutchess in the Palace of St. Cloud, and the Duke Regent resigns his fine House of Bagnolet to the Duke of Charites. The Abbé Caperonier was Yesterday chosen Professor of the Greek Tongue in the Royal College, in the Room of the late M. de Varignon. The Actions not being delivered out as was expected on the 20th Instant, they are fallen to less than 1450 Livres. The Liquidations continue at 22 Livres.
